

knowing & acting graduate conference july 24-26

	thu	fri	sat
09.30		Lena Ljucovic: Expressing Pain and Knowing Beliefs	Nicholas Koziolk: Belief, Judgment, and Rational Explanation
11.00		Jonas Held: Is a Practical Knowledge Account of Belief Possible?	Dhanajay Jagannathan: The 'Practical' Character of Theoretical Knowledge in Plato's Statesman
12.30	Tuomo Tiisala: Power and Freedom in the Space of Reasons	lunch	lunch
14.00	Jessica Tizzard: The Role of Sensibility in Kant's Account of Practical Judgment	Eylem Özaltun: Knowledge in Action and Knowledge in Perception	Thijs Menting: A Logical Account of Reflection
15.30	coffee break	coffee break	Till Hoepfner: Kant's Metaphysical Deduction as a Theory of Cognitive Activity
16.00	Emanuel John: Practical Universality	Rory O'Connell: Perception's Role In Practical Knowledge
17.30	Peter Wiersbinski: Is an Instrumental Agent Possible?	Christian Kietzmann: Cognition and Intention
19.30	dinner	dinner

University of Potsdam
Am Neuen Palais, Bldg. 9, R 1.09.1.15

Format: All papers will be made available in advance and each session will start with only a brief presentation by the speaker

Organization: Thijs Menting, Emanuel John & Lena Ljucovic

Registration: lena.ljucovic@uni-potsdam.de

The conference is kindly supported by the DFG-Graduiertenkolleg "Lebensformen, Lebenswissen" (European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder), and Potsdam University) and by Prof. James Conant (University of Chicago, Anneliese Maier Research Award)